

I can animate

Animation Rubric

	Animator	Apprentice	Novice
Story/script	Above and beyond. All information is clear, appropriate and correct. Story has a beginning middle and end.	Storyline is evident in most of the animation. Information is clear.	Storyline is confusing and has no direction.
Storyboard	Fully developed storyboard that includes dialogue, set changes, camera angles/shots.  Used storyboard for goal setting, time management and organisation	Basic storyboard with some dialogue and camera shots/angles.  Storyboard used as a guideline.	Storyboard contains some detail  Did not utilise a storyboard during process or storyboard is incomplete.
Characters	Well developed characters - correct size for the set and appropriate to the story.  Detailed sets to meet the needs of the storyline.  Props are appropriate size to characters	Characters suit storyline.  More work needed on scale of characters and set	Characters are random - not scaled to the size of the set.  Sparse set - can only be viewed from one side.
Final Animation	Animation is very smooth - movements not too big or jerky.  Voices, music and sound effects are relevant to the story.  Titles and credits are well designed and appropriate to the animation.	Animation is some what smooth with some choppy areas.  Music and sound effects are part of the story  Titles and credits are added to the animation	Animation is choppy .  No voice, music or sound.  Title and credits are not included
 Student/s comments: Teacher's Comments 			